DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species I. Drawn to Figures 4 and 5; for example, regarding claims 1-14;

Species II. Drawn to Figure 6; for example, regarding claims 15-17.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, there are no generic claims.

In the event that specie I is elected, Applicant is further required to elect a single disclosed species for the limiter for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable because species I is directed to the following three patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species IA. Drawn to a movable piston limiter;

Species IB. Drawn to a diaphragm limiter;

Species IC. Drawn to a bladder limiter;

Also, in the event specie I is elected, Applicant is further required to elect a single disclosed species for the medium for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable because species I is also directed to the following two patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species ID. Drawn to a an inert gas energy absorbing medium;

Species IE. Drawn to a spring energy absorbing medium.

Additionally, in the event specie I is elected, Applicant is further required to elect a single disclosed species for the accumulator side for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable because species I is additionally directed to the following two patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species IF. Drawn to an accumulator connected to the piston side;

Species IG. Drawn to an accumulator connected to the rod side.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Conclusion

A telephone call was made to the attorney of record, Daniel DeJoseph, on January 28, 2005, to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
